OVERVIEW

St. Kitts and Nevis introduced the first citizenship by investment programme in the world in 1984. More than four decades of uninterrupted operation have given the programme a depth of government experience, international recognition, and institutional trust that newer programmes simply cannot match.

INVESTMENT ROUTES

Sustainable Island State Contribution (SISC)
USD 250,000 (single or couple) / USD 300,000 (family of 4)

A non-refundable contribution to the Sustainable Island State Fund. This is the preferred route for most of our clients — straightforward documentation, no holding...

Approved Real Estate
USD 325,000 minimum (shared) / USD 400,000 (sole ownership)

Purchase of an approved development project — typically resort properties in Basseterre or Nevis. The property must be held for a minimum of seven years.
