OVERVIEW

St. Lucia established its Citizenship by Investment Programme in 2015, making it one of the newer Caribbean programmes — but one that has quickly earned a place among the top options for investors seeking a combination of affordability, passport quality, and investment flexibility.

INVESTMENT ROUTES
National Economic Fund (NEF)
USD 240,000 (single) / USD 300,000 (family)

A non-refundable contribution to the National Economic Fund. The most straightforward route — no property, no holding period.

Government Bonds
USD 300,000 (any family size)

Purchase government bonds issued by the St. Lucia government. Bonds are held for five years and the principal is returned at maturity. The net cost is the interest...

Approved Real Estate
USD 300,000 minimum

Purchase of approved hotel or resort properties. Minimum five-year holding period.

KEY BENEFITS

- Visa-free access to 148+ countries
- No physical visit or residency requirement
- Competitive pricing among Caribbean programmes
- Government bonds option allows partial capital recovery
- No global income tax obligations

HOW THE PROCESS WORKS

- 1 Route Selection
 We compare the effective cost of NEF, bonds, and real estate for your family size and recommend the optimal route.
- 2 Document Preparation
 Full application dossier compiled for main applicant and all dependants.
- 3 Compliance Review
 Pre-submission review against the Citizenship by Investment Unit's (CIU) standards.
- 4 CIU Submission
 Application submitted to the St. Lucia Citizenship by Investment Unit.
- 5 Approval & Investment
 On approval, the selected investment is executed — NEF payment, bond purchase, or property completion.
- 6 Passport Issuance
 Passports issued for all family members and delivered by courier.
